THE CHILD

There was a child went forth every day,
 And the first object she look'd upon,
 That object she became,
 And that object became part of her for the day or a certain part of the day,
 Or for many years or stretching cycles of years.
 All of the newly emerging buds,
 And the smell of the Catherine Crab trees,
 The scent of the grass was in every breath she took.
 The squawking of the newborn bluejays, their mouths gaping open,
     ready to swallow whatever landed in them.
 The constant conversation of the neighborhood dogs,
 The feel of the prickly grass on the backs of her bare legs.
 The scurrying of the chipmunks with their painted backs,
 And the squirrels with their tails that move in a wave of motion.
 The dandelions, those beautiful unwanted flowers,
     their bright yellow heads reaching for the sky.
 The man next door, with his blue sailor hat and white t-shirt,
     always making sure his yard was immaculate.
 The funny wooden animals forever on the neighbors lawn.
 The mother, always busy, but always ready to help and listen.
 The mother, authoritative, and strangely intimidating, but always loving.
 The father, soft-hearted and easy-going, his sometimes childish manner that was so easy to understand.
 The fear of darkness and the joy of being left alone to think,
     discover, and wander.
 The far away horizon, trying to decide which one of his tales were true —
 Does it melt into the lake?
 Does it hide in a corn field?
 Or does it just get tired and go to sleep?
 Thinking, Wondering, Wandering, Discovering Exploring — Childhood.
 These became part of that child who went forth every day and now goes,
     and will always go forth every day.
 -Lisa Drewek.

WANTED WORDS OF WISDOM

TO THE
PRAIRIE VISE SQUAD
FROM
JAMES B. VAN HOVEN
HEADMASTER

Forgive me for being serious for a minute, but you may have wondered from time to time what your work at Prairie has been all about. Well, it's been about making each of you a part of a larger world - by giving you the tools that empower you to contribute to that world. The knowledge you have gained and the attitudes and values you have developed have hopefully not only informed you, but transformed you - because critical inquiry is necessary to establish your ethical base as an individual.

Charles Bronskiowski, author of The Ascent of Man, put it this way:

"Knowledge is not a loose-leaf notebook of facts.

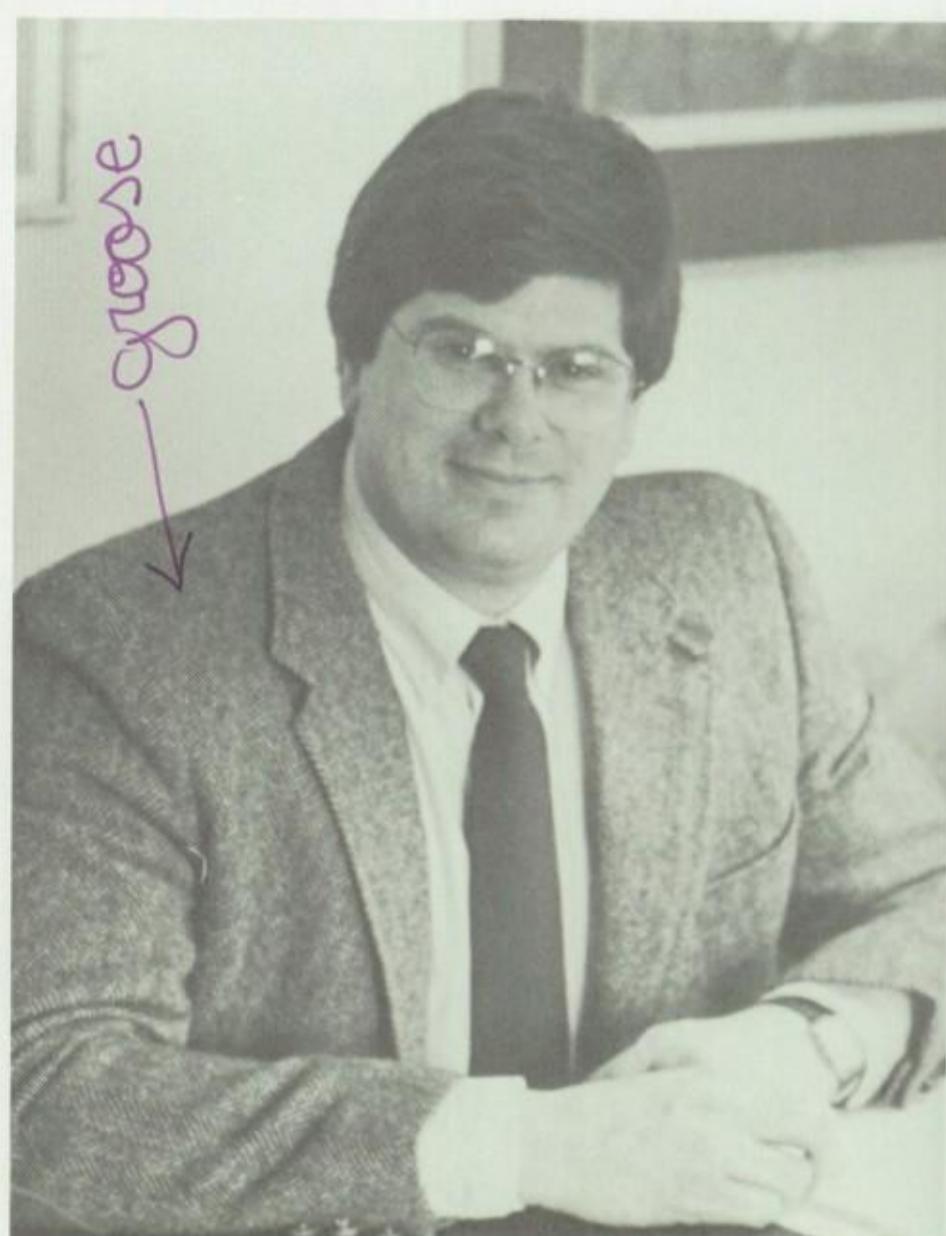

Above all, it is a responsibility for the integrity of what we are, primarily of what we are as ethical creatures. You cannot possibly maintain that informed integrity if you let other people run the world for you while you yourself live out of a rag bag of morals that come from past beliefs.

This is what we at Prairie have been about as we've worked with you. We hope we've been successful. God bless you all, and good luck.

After 13 years - I'm finally FREE!

If I could truly be a friend to someone, sift through all the useless talk and colorful facades, provide a smile or even a tear-drop - if only for a moment — It matters all the more to me.

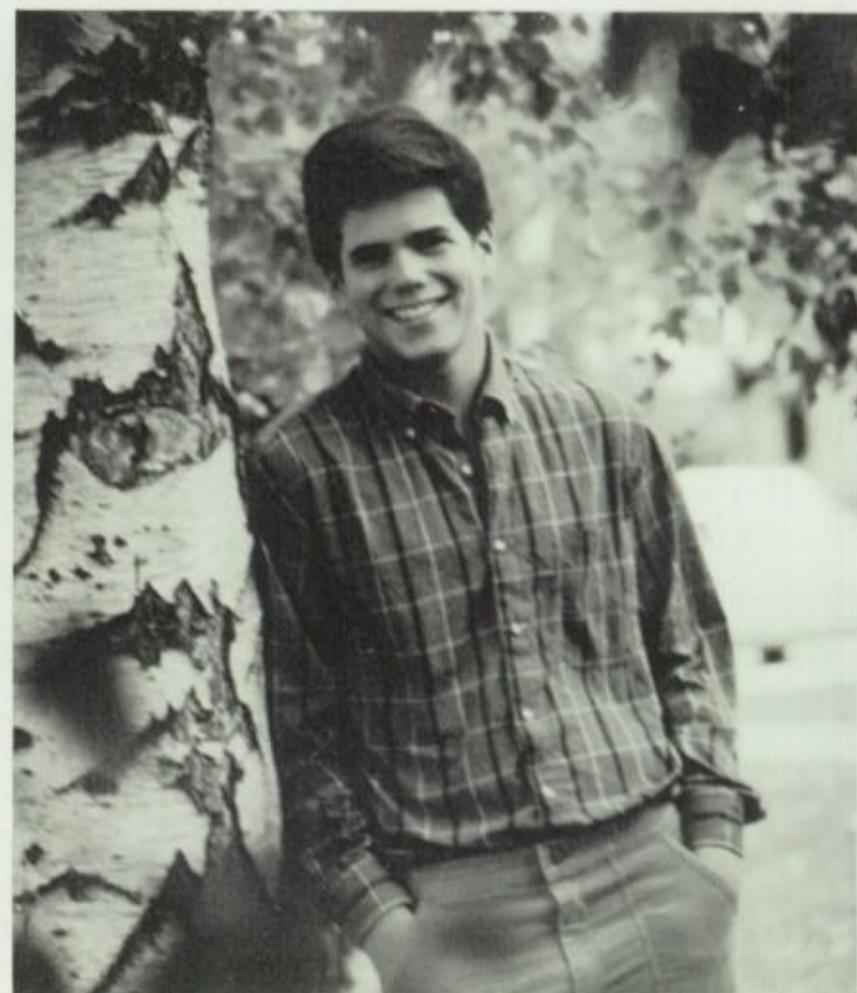

So many things I think about
When I look far away
Things I know - things I wonder
Things I'd like to say
The more we think we know about
The greater the unknown
We suspend our disbelief
And we are not alone-

We sometimes catch a window
A glimpse of what's beyond
Was it just imagination
Stringing us along?
More things than are dreamed
about
Unseen and unexplained
We suspend our disbelief
And we are entertained-

The 1985 Girls' Field Hockey team finished its regular season with an 8-4 record. On Saturday, October 26, the Hawkettes stomped into action against University Lake School in a Semi-final game at the Southeast Lakes Conference tournament held at the Prairie School. Twice beaten by ULS, the Prairie girls took advantage of their opportunities defeating ULS 3-1. Goals were scored by Jenny Schlack, Lisa Drewek, and Patricia Tanner.

In the championship game against University School of Milwaukee, with one minute, thirty seconds left on the clock, Jenny Schroeder, with an assist from Patricia Tanner, scored the winning goal to defeat USM 1-0. With less than fifteen seconds on the clock, the crowd watched Prairie's 4'9" goalie, Muffy Bloch, make a jumping save to keep the game from going into overtime. Prairie girls claimed the Tournament Championship for the second consecutive year.

Season Highlights include outstanding plays by senior Lisa Drewek, and eighth grader Marianna Tanner, who dominated the mid-field. Three veterans Tricia Kelly, Stephanie Gabriel, and Katja Van Zelst, took defensive stands, and goalie Muffy Bloch proved her ability in the goal by being named to the All-Conference team along with Lisa Drewek, and forward Patricia Tanner.

Prairie Team Members: Rob Coniker, Steve Van Hoven, Bob Becker, Matt Silbergliitt, Joe Coniker

While the wrestling team didn't score many points in the "win" column this year, the team displayed a positive attitude and a lot of hustle throughout the year. The team was very young and inexperienced, but there were a number of promising wrestlers from The Prairie School who have bright futures ahead of them. Among them were freshmen Bob Becker, Matt Silbergliitt, and Joe Coniker, sophomore Rob Coniker, with the team being led by junior Steve Van Hoven.

At the conference meet, Bob Becker and Rob Coniker captured third place honors, while Steve Van Hoven edged out his opponents with a 10-9 score to take first place in the Midwest Classic Conference.

Being the first year that the wrestling team has been in existence, it was primarily a building year. Next year promises to be an exciting one!

The 1985-86 girls' basketball season was one of excitement and frustration. Faced with only two returning starters, the Hawks had a challenge to answer in trying to find a combination of players that would help accomplish season goals. Hard work and desire surfaced as play progressed but unfortunately, strong conference opponents stood in the way of some victories. A few of the season highlights were the two victories over University School and taking Burlington St. Mary's into overtime, something that had not been done in awhile. Senior Lisa Drewek and junior Cathy Taylor led the team in rebounding and scoring respectively and were always supported by a total, never-ending effort from their teammates. A promising group of underclassmen, including seven freshmen, are enthusiastically paving the way for the future teams at Prairie.

Front; Kevin Stouwie, Caleb Lippman, Rajiv Naik. The 1985-86 Prairie Boy's Basketball Team entered state tournament play on the verge of a .500 record. After a four-game losing streak in mid-season in which the Hawks were plagued by injuries to seniors Paul Hammes, Paul Mueller, and Chris Davis, the team responded with three difficult road victories. Davis and Hammes maintained 13-points-per-game averages through the season, while Mueller hovered near the double-figure mark. Other seniors on this year's team were Grant Larsen, David Stouwie, and Joe Meredith.

Back; Coach Greene, Scott DeJong, Ty Hammes, Steve Cook, Kent Villup, Chris Gustafson, Middle, Daryl Babbu, Bryan Clarke, Marc Perry, Jim Sorenson, Front; Derek Booker, Andy Oteman, John Lamberton. The 1986 Girl's Soccer Team is looking forward to the season after a 10-2 record in 1985. After two seasons of play (girls soccer was started at Prairie in 1984) a talented group of junior and senior girls are prepared to play a schedule that includes the highly experienced Milwaukee schools. VARSITY TENNIS. Front; Erik Swanson, Middle, Sonu Garg, Greg Nikitas, Joe Kuo, Mark Foti, Back; Jon Piggins, John Henzl, Peter Wilson. The 1986 Season should be very good with nine returning lettermen. The quality of other players may result in a lineup which changes from week to week. The top single prospects are Erik Swanson, Andy Alexander, Mark Foti, and Derek Crabb. Our doubles teams will probably be composed of Greg Nikitas, Keith Green, Joe Kuo, Peter Wilson, Grant Larsen, and Sonu Garg. The Hawks hope to improve on their second place finish in the conference. Regardless of the record, the group is an outstanding group of men to work with and it should be fun. -Coach Swanson.
